In recognition of National Breast Cancer Awareness Month, “Colors for a Cause” will be at Bayne-Jones Army Community Hospital (BJACH) during the Fort Polk Annual Retiree Appreciation Day. “Colors for a Cause” helps families as they battle cancer by providing financial assistance for mortgage/rent, utilities, travel expenses for medical treatment, and they also conduct a Christmas Outreach program to help provide these families with funds and/or gifts for the children of the family. The “Colors for a Cause” Pink Fire Truck also know as “Sandi” will be arriving at BJACH on 27 October 2012. They will be onsite from 8:00 AM to 2:00 PM.
